BUDGET TOTAL IS LOWER THIS YEAR

Fully $5730 will be spent this year for student welfare, according to the adopted budget of the Associated Students.

More than 40 per cent of this sum is set aside for men's athletics which are divided as follows: $200 to baseball, $220 to basketball, $1600 to football, $220 to track, $80 to tennis, and $25 to golf. This total sport fund is $2345.

The next largest sum is devoted to Del Anon, which is $1200. This is 21 per cent of the total budget.

Other distributions according to their value are as follows: socials $770; Fiesta $300; miscellaneous $275; subsidies $245; W. A. A. $200; Phi Theta Kappa $100; forensics $100; advertising $90; A. W. S. $65; Alpha Gamma Sigma $40.

Money for these activities are derived from the sale of student tickets, athletic contests, some small subsidy from the school board, and other student activities.

Due to the low sale of student ticket this year, every item on the budget had to be cut 20 per cent.

Real Friendship

Flowers Between

Robin and Kitten

By Philomene Maiden

No longer does the mischievous pussy-cat, Puffy, stand with drooling mouth at the sight of that dainty morsel of bird food, Kippie—for kitty is a reformed beast. She wouldn't think of hurting her little feathered robin-friend: and what is more, Kippie isn't the least bit afraid of her big feline companion.

Either Kippie is a very brave little robin or else Puffy is a very noble cat, but at any rate, they are both so congenial that they share the same drinking saucer and sleep in the same room. Puffy doesn't seem to mind the little Robin's perching on his back all day; she even purrs contentedly as she does in the sun.

A great deal of interest has been taken in the friendly pair by students of psychology as well as by lovers of animals. In fact, so much interest has been aroused that Puffy, the cat, has been presented with a medal for her friendly spirit.

John B. Watson, former head of the psychology department of Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore Md., who has earned the reputation of being one of the greatest experimenters with animals, is believed by E. M. Nealley to be responsible for this experiment with Puffy and Kippie. Mr. Watson has undoubtedly proved in this experiment that instinct in animals can be modified by habit.

Mr. Nealley has displayed a picture of the loving pair on the bulletin board in College hall, so that students interested in Puffy's and Kippie's strange affinity may be able to see them.

(NSPA) The University of Hawaii holds one of its extension course schools on the run of a volcano, so that the students can better study botany, geology, and volcanic phenomena.

Sign Stealers to be Prosecuted States President

"The sticky fingers and exaggerated acquisitive proclivities of some of our students is causing considerable embarrassment and threatens to handicap student activities rather seriously," Miner Whitford, President of the Associated Students, declared emphatically today.

Whitford referred to the disappearance of posters advertising college events from the bulletin board, a short time after they have been displayed. The art department has been furnishing posters for social activities, football games, and other events, and these posters, have been stolen by some students who apparently need wall paper for their rooms.

Dinner Is Sponsored By Spinster Pledges

Spinster pledges entertained their seniors Monday evening with a progressive dinner.

After various dinner courses were served at pledges' homes, the regular meeting was held at Yette Blank's home at Tustin.

Regular members who attended were LeOra Hatch, Jean Berry, Pauline Berry, Mary Jean DuBois, Irene Boyer, Barbara Copeland, Elizabeth Downie, Marian Brownridge, and Florence Campbell.

Pledges present were Marian Hawk, Carol Cogan, Mary Adams, Medora Smith, Eleanor Bowyer, Lila Davis, Yette Blank, Mildred Loudon, Janet Diehl, Dorothy Spicer, and Kathryn Sexton.

Mary Adams was in charge of the affair.

DEL ANO RECEIVES EXCELLENT RATING IN ANNUAL CONTEST

Receiving excellent or first class honor rating, Del Anon, college yearbook, totaled 870 out of a possible 1000 points in the recent National Scholastic Press association contest.

"Much credit should go to Evelyn Fairley and Bill Campbell for the publication that their staff put out," states George B. Holmes, Del Anon adviser, today, "as Santa Ana's book was competing with every junior college and normal school in the United States. Del Anon should especially be congratulated considering that they put out their book at less than $2 per copy, which is very economical considering the quality of products with which it was competing."

Advertising Writers May Enter Contest

Students enrolled in advertising classes are eligible to submit advertisements around the theme, "To cure a Cold, Go to Bed, To Relieve a Cold, Use Vapex," in a contest sponsored by E. Fougera and Co. Inc., distributors of Vapex.

Two sets of prizes are offered. First a national set of prizes for the best advertisements submitted by students; second, a set of school prizes whereby the best paper in each school will be recognized.

Further information may be secured from Miss Dorothy Decker, advertising instructor.

JOURNALISM STUDENTS TO STUDY MANY NEWSPAPERS

To aid them in their understanding of newspaper principles, members of English 50A or journalism, are sending for the leading newspapers representing the various sections of the United States.

The most well-known papers from twenty different states and one from Canada will be studied.

DANCING CLASS TO START FRI. NOON

Only Beginners Allowed to Learn With Group

That all students may more thoroughly enjoy college social life, a class in ballroom dancing is being started Friday noon in the big gym, according to information received from the executive board.

Miss Zena Leck, women's physical education instructor, will be in charge of the group, and only those who know absolutely nothing about dancing may join the class.

"It is believed that there are many students in the college who would very much appreciate learning to dance," stated Miner Whitford, Associated student president today.

The idea is a result of discussion at the president's meeting held a few weeks ago, at which those present were trying to find out how to get students more interested in college affairs.

"Santa Ana jaycee is noted for its social activity," says Whitford, "and if we are successful in this move it will make students even more socially minded, thus affording them more pleasure from college life."

All students who cannot dance, but who are interested in learning are urged to be in the gym Friday noon. Those who show evidence of previous experience will be eliminated, states Miss Leck. "The reason that we must forbid those who can dance to come," explains Miss Leck, "is that if we did not they would so embarrass those just learning, that the latter would become discouraged and discontinue their efforts."

Significance Of

Grades Revealed

By College Prexy

"Well, that's over! How did you come out on that fifth question, Bill? Gosh, I sure hope I didn't flunk!"

"Oh, you probably didn't; you study quite regularly. I'm really in a bad fix, myself. . . . I was crazy enough to think I could get it all in one night. When I looked at those questions today in fairly made me dizzy."

"Gee, that's tough, Bill, but there's still another quarter; you'll have a chance to average your grade points if you get down to serious work."

"You're right, Bob. I guess it really doesn't pay to cram. I'm going to settle down and work for A's and B's this quarter."

Following was received from W. W. Campbell, former president of the University of Southern California, as his interpretation of grades:

"A means that you have grasped a subject so that you can give it out again with the stamp of your individual insight upon it. B means that you have taken it in and can give it out again in the same form in which it came to you. No B man can ever make a scholar. C means the same as B, only that your second-hand information is partial and fragmentary, rather than complete. D means that you have been exposed to a subject often enough and long enough to leave on the plate of your memory a few faint traces. F means total failure. Two F's bring a letter to your parents."

Dana Lamb and Wife on Voyage Around Horn in 18-Foot Canoe

Former S. A. J. C. Graduates To Explore Unknown Bays Along South American Coastline

Mr. and Mrs. Dana Lamb, former jaycee graduates, are on their great adventure—a trip around the Horn in their sturdy canoe the "Vagabonda" Word has reached their parents here that they have left San Diego and are once more southward bound.

The "Vagabonda" is an 18 foot covered canoe, constructed by Lamb at Laguna Beach. The details of their cargo have been taken care of in ship-shape style. The gear has been tucked away in the wings of the little packet, made waterproof by means of a zippered tarpaulin, which will keep provisions dry should the craft overturn. Their tent and sleeping equipment are also provided with zipper fastenings.

Sail Down Coast

During the day the adventurous couple paddle out through the break-

ers, hoist sail, and drift lazily down the coast, making camp on shore each night. Mr. and Mrs. Lamb will depend mostly upon hunting and fishing for provisions, their rations being very scanty due to lack of storage space. Most important in their equipment is a small water distillery, which will sterilize the ocean water.

Lamb has circled the globe several times and has had much valuable experience as second mate. Originally the trip was to be merely a nautical vacation, but as numerous lucrative propositions have been offered them, they will take pictures as they sail along. When the "Vagabonda" comes into Laguna, months or perhaps years from now, these two young people will have tales to tell that may well equal those of their sea-faring forbears.

Collegiate Kleptomaniacs

Petty thievery reached such a height this week that the executive board has been forced to take action against it, and a statement is printed elsewhere in this paper from the president of the Associated Students.

It is bad enough when infantile college people think it sensible to steal signs from billboards, and such places with which to plaster their sleeping compartments at home, but when it becomes necessary to fasten notices in the college hall under lock and key, then something should be done.

And notices of dances and other social events will have to be placed under lock and key, and possibly protected by civil guard, if these signs do not cease disappearing from bulletin boards.

This editorial was not written to fill space. It is a warning to you Dons so overflowing with Spanish courtesy that you can't bear to see a sign left on the bulletin board all by itself, but must waft it away to the coddling protection of your sleeping chambers.

Savoir Fair

By Dee Korum

College dances are private dances. The patrons and patronesses or officials of the organization act in place of hosts and hostess and must be afforded the same courtesy. Greet them upon arrival and present companion if not a student.

An escort never leaves a young lady alone on the dance floor, nor does he smoke while in the ball room.

One never wears sport clothes unless specified. Semi-formal means for women to wear simple afternoon or evening dress and for men to come attired in suits, of a dark shade if possible. Guests need not take official leave of patrons, but it is better form to do so.

Did You Know?

That in 1732 girls of Salem girls of Salem College could take baths only by special permission and at times indicated by instructors?

That "Yeah" is not a new expression, but dates back to the year 948 A. D., when it was used by King Alfred. (According to Professor Greet of Bernard College).

That in the early days students at Oklahoma Agricultural and Mechanical College were required to leave their firearms outside of the buildings.

That Paul Robeson, the great negro actor and baritone, was an All-American end from Rutgers in 1917?

Fallen Leaves

If you are one of these "darn tourists", who insist on asking forest rangers whether a skunk and a pole cat are the same animal, and if they call a skunk a pole cat because it climbs poles when it sees anything, no longer do you need to show your ignorance. No longer is it necessary for you to pick poison oak to send home because no one told you the why and wherefore of mountaineering. Horace M. Allbright, Director of National Park Service and Frank J. Taylor, friend of the national parks for many years, have corroborated on a book explaining the mysteries and idiosyncracies of the National Park and also some of the foolish questions tourists ask the defenseless ranger. They have chosen to call this bible of National Parks, "Oh, Ranger", in honor of the uniformed vacationer.

Wild Weeds

Where did Indian Paint brush get its name? What's in the Yucca? A thousand and one interesting explanations of the oddities of our Pacific slope flowers and blooming shrubs as explained by myths and stories connected with them are explained in Charles Francis Saunders' new book "Western Wild Flowers and Their Stories". You armchair botanists, you wild flower collectors, no where else will you be able to enjoy the beauties and humor of nature so pleasantly and easily. Pluck a new flower from each page of the book. Look at the pictures of flowers you have never seen before and never may see.

Happy Landings

The roar of the great winged dragon "ojala" (aeroplane) roused the scilient halls of ancient Inca temples long claimed by the jungle, to wakefulness and the Tahuautinsuyians people of the ancient Inca Empire) rose from their graves to see what "dratted contraption" dared make so much noise in this, a holy place. Mrs. Marie Beale was not content to fly over this gigantic collection of archaeologist's delight but explored on foot the marvels of, what many believe to be, the fabled Atlantis. She has not lessened the account of her adventures by unexciting facts, rather she has heightened her story by exciting incidents and tales of the old civilization of a might race. "A Flight Into America's Past", is a lasting tribute to a wonderful civilization.

Americana

By Ray Forrest

Frances Egge and Ilse Hamann teach art at jaycee. Just another Hamann-Egge combination.

According to one of my informants, the word "Moavs", for which a prominent campus organizations in named, stands for the Modern Order of Ancient Vamps. Cleopatra has not revealed herself as yet.

Handel and Beethoven may be some people's favorite composers, but just the same they prefer to listen to Ben Bernie over the radio.

People love to get the low-down on the high-ups, but they hate for the high-ups to get the low-down on them.

"America is fast becoming an old man's world" says the daily press. Maybe so, but take a look at these old men. Only the other day a man 77 years old became the proud parent of new born twins.

There is still some unconquered wilderness within the bounds of civilized America. A few week's ago two Lalloonists were lost in the wilds of Ontario. They wandered for days, half starved and with their clothes torn to shreds, before they stumbled into a lonely outpost. Had they been lost in the jungles of Africa or Brazil they could not have had a more harrowing experience.

It has been said that it is far greater to build an empire than to conquer an empire. Evidently we still have room to build.

Student Comment

Upon consideration of preceeding events, La Compania de Los Gauchos concluded at their meeting Monday evening, November 6, that—

Whereas: There was a "Gentleman's Agreement" among presidents and advisers of the mens' and womens' service clubs to the effect that initiation of pledges would not interfere with school activities, and Whereas: This agreement has been openly violated and ignored by all clubs, including our own.

Therefore: Be it resolved that La Compania de Los Gauchos shall henceforth adhere to the principles as expounded in the "Gentleman's Agreement", and trust that the other service clubs will effect the same policy.

Sport Spots

By "Mort"

Riverside had a bad case of blues when Santa Ana upset their hopes of titular glory, Santa Ana felt just a bit worse. The Dons had figured the Riverside fracas their biggest hurdle and had cleared it successfully. Citrus sent the lilies.

"Wally" Smith has cinched a first string berth on the Arizona State grid machine, it was learned today through the courtesy of some unknown. Tex Oliver's Arizona team has done well so far this season, annexing two out of its three games. Football followers will remember that "Wally" played fullback on the Don eleven last year. Congrats, Wally.

Another product of the local institution has turned up in sporting circles. Jim Musick, who plays with the Boston Redskins, broke into print Monday when he starred in a pro game against the Chicago Bears. The Chicago Bears have lead the league all season without a defeat. They were trimmed 10 to 0.

Santa Ana junior college still has a crack at the pennant this year providing they win every game remaining on their schedule. Chaffey is no cinch for the best of teams, witness its tie with Citrus, win over Fullerton, and San Bernardino. Due to some funny J. C. ruling, if Santa Ana should tie with Riverside for the championship, Santa Ana will win by virtue of its win over the Tigers.

The national situation seems to be in the same state of perplexity as the local. In the East about ten teams can lay claim to the right to come West for the Rose Bowl game; in the West no team has managed to come through its schedule with record untarnished. Unless Stanford or Oregon does the unbelievable and defeats the Trojans, S. C. will be almost certain to take the field against the eastern invaders. Army is being considered for the scrapmate.

The current football season has driven sport prognosticators to cover but just to fool the general public, we'll pick them again this time (correctly). We pick the local institution over the Chaffey Panthers 7 to 6 or 13 to 7. Citrus will bury weak Pomona after the first half for a 32 to 0 score. Fullerton will be unable to scalp the strong Riverside squad taking a 18 to 0 drubbing at the Panther's hands.

In the big leagues, Stanford will fight S. C. to a stand still or annex the struggle 6 to 0, providing Stanford's wound bearers are ready for the contest. Washington and California will find the Bears in possession of the field by a close margin.

Pennant Hopes of Dons at Stake At Panther's Den Next Saturday

Plunger

MIKE MIKLUAK
- OREGON -

Oregon claims one of the mightiest men of the gridiron in Mike Mikluak. He's plenty big and full of fight. Already coast teams have felt the drive of his mighty frame and have learned to respect his plunges.

Harold Welty Leads Scorers; Bell Next

Welty's lead as chief scorer of the Don squad was the only thing left unmarred after an afternoon of ill omen on Saturday last. Welty was the only one to add any digits to his record after another hour of league competition, raising his total to 26 points ranking just one touchdown and two conversions ahead of "Porky" Bell, ranking second with 18 points. Wilburn Anderson, half, and Walt Gunther and Ben Slavin, ends, have netted six points each.

U. S. C. (CNS)—Southern California Trojans now claim the longest victory streak in modern, major football—having surpassed the Notre Dame mark, of the Four Horsemen days, of 26 games without defeat. The Irishmen's string include two ties. The Trojans went along for 25 games and were held to a scoreless tie by Oregon State. The next week they defeated California.

Minneapolis, Nov. 8, (CNS)—For the first time in the history of the University of Minnesota a student has been granted the permission to substitute physical education for military training courses because he is a "conscientious objector."

Santa Ana's curly haired gridiron mentor is having a little difficulty getting his prescribed 8 hours these days. After watching the progress of the league leading Chaffey outfit, he has gone into a huddle with his brain trust and decided to lick Chaffey. Coach Bert Heiser, formerly of U. S. C., in fact one of Cook's illustrious playmates at that institution, though with the hardest part of his season ahead of him, already sees visions of Chaffey bringing home the little blue pennant to hang in Chaffey's musty halls of fame.

The Chaffey coach has more than his word with which to back up his visions, too. For instance, there is Keough, shifty triple threat man in the backfield. The center of the line is heavy though not quite so heavy as that of Riverside. The wings too are plenty strong and beefy. The Panthers incorporate plenty of speed with the style used by Riverside.

In three visits to the Panther's den, Santa Ana has returned but once with their skin unscratched. "This year we're out to bring home the cat's fur and even things up," the stocky mentor of the Dons was heard to say.

The hospital list looks more like an army roll call than wound stripe bearers of a respectable junior college. Norton came to school today slightly the worse for wear, Welty has a bad shoulder but will probably be ready for light practice before the game, Fipps, blocking half, hit someone too hard with his shoulder, Anderson, also suffered from a bad shoulder, Needham is not for good, according to reports from Coach Cook, Mitchell tried to push his spine out his neck and consequently has pains back there, Koral is out permanently with a bruised kidney.

Cook has decided to shift "Porky" Bell to the crap shooters position, outside half, for the time being. Cook has one consolation, Koral will be eligible next year.

Tustin Women Defeat Jaycee in Basketball

Playing their first practice games of the basketball season, the jaycee freshman team was defeated 16-11 by Tustin's juniors while the seniors of the school chalked up a 42-13 victory over Santa Ana's sophomores Monday afternoon. Acting as captain for the freshmen was Merrill Lee Rankin; Ruth Crowl acted as captain for the sophomores.

The inter-team tournament, which will run for a period of four weeks, begins today. The games will be played between four of the six squads each Monday and Wednesday afternoon.

L. A. Team Tough Job If Dons Win League

Providing Santa Ana can pull through the rest of a tough schedule, they will meet a strong aggressive Los Angeles team in the final round. The big city junior college has completely outclassed its rivals so far and gives every indication of making a clean sweep the rest of their schedule!

Coach Clayes' Owls Score Win Over Dons

Coach Clayes' Citrus Owls scored a win over Santa Ana's Dons last Saturday at Poly field, swiping the bacon with a score of 7 to 6.

Turning back a mighty Tiger team from Riverside, after an afternoon of some of the snappiest football old timers could recall, Cook's proteges turned in a neat exhibition of football for the first half hour period against Citrus' night Owls, pushing Welty over for 6 points. Forgetting that Santa Ana was the favorite to take the contest, the Owls became inspired and took the Santa Ana squad with them on a tour up and down the hundred yards of turf to chalk up 7 of the necessary numerals to put the Don's formerly scored 6 points in the shade. Authorities agree that the main pains of the Cook aggregation last Saturday were Comstock and Brennan.

First Games Played In Women Basketball

The first two games in a series of women basketball contests were played Monday night in the school gymnasium. Members of the team captained by Davis defeated Furttsch's team 25-4 and Stafford's team won over Garthe's 9-2.

Schedule for basketball season will terminate in Play Day to be held here December 9. Miss Marian Bruner, physical education instructor, will choose a first and second team from both freshmen and sophomore women classes which will compete with other schools. Volleyball will also be played.

Miss Bruner requests that all women participating in games watch the bulletin board in the gymnasium for the schedule of games and to come out when their team is going to play.

Moavs, Lions Hold Joint Club Meeting

As guests of the Moavs, the Junior Lions travelled to the home of Ardith Parham on the Irvine-Lambert ranch for a joint meeting and party Monday evening.

Each club held a meeting prior to a social entertainment furnished by the pledges. In the Lion meeting plans for the annual bonfire rally before the Fullerton game were discussed and Thoma Flippen was appointed general manager for all arrangements.

The definite arrangements for the dinner dance to be held by the Lions on December 8, were announced by Austin Joy, chairman of the committee in charge of the affair.

The Moavs business was set aside for initiation of the pledges and arrangements for the social part of the meeting.

The group enjoyed a treasure hunt early in the evening and later an informal initiation was held. The party was concluded with dancing and out-of-doors barbecue.

Committees in charge of the affair were Evelyn Richardson, program and initiation; Jeanne Leive and Natalie Neff, refreshments; and Ardith Parham and Dave Whitford, general arrangements.
